Sri Lankan English Language Teacher Educator Conference 2024

Are you an English language teacher educator? Do you want to find out more about new trends in English language teacher education locally and regionally? As part of the Improving Teacher Educator in Sri Lanka Project, the Ministry of Education and British Council are holding a conference. Join us for the third Sri Lankan English Language Teacher Educator Conference.

When : Thursday 29 February, Friday March 1 and Saturday March 2nd 2024

Where : MAS Athena, Thulhiriya

Overall theme : Current trends in English Language Teaching and their implications for teacher education

Register to attend the conference or to submit an abstract to present a paper, deliver a workshop or make a poster presentation on the sub themes below:

A. Inclusive language teaching
B. English as a lingua franca and World Englishes
C. AI and its impact on language teaching
D. Reflective practice and teacher-led research
E. Bilingual Education (BE) and English Medium Instruction (EMI)

Registration links for Presenters and Participants

SLELTEC 2024 Online application - Presenter's form
https://forms.office.com/e/hgaBPZ9N8G

SLELTEC 2024 Online application - Participant's form
https://forms.office.com/e/CMiPcPj2Wr

Presenter deadline extended to 31 December 2023.

Go to the British Council website for more information
https://www.britishcouncil.lk/programmes/education/sri-lankan-english-language-teacher-educator-conference-2024